Coney Island
From the 1880s until the 1950s, "Coney Island of the West" was a great tourist destination. A hotel, rental cabins, and summer homes lined the island shores. Local lore suggests that during prohibition, infamous gangsters frequented the island, including Al Capone. Today the remains of Coney Island's buildings decay silently, but wildlife abounds on this protected habitat area, including egrets and great blue herons.

Waconia's streets are lined with charming, one-of-a-kind shops.

On the east edge of town, you'll find a beautiful regional park, including a sandy beach, picnic tables, recreation area and public boat launch. From the shore, enjoy a sailing regatta, 4th of July fireworks, or watch the windsurfers and kitesurfers skip across the waves. In winter, take a wild trip down one of the longest and steepest sliding hills in the region.

The second largest lake in the metro area, Lake Waconia is a slice of paradise in Carver County. In summer the lake comes alive. Sailors, wind surfers, boaters and fishing enthusiasts flock to its clear waters. You can rent a boat and fishing gear at InTowne Marina or enjoy the scenery and terrific dining on the lakeside deck of Lola's Lakehouse. In winter, the lake is a snow-covered playground. By snowmobile or on cross-country skis, its beauty is breathtaking.
